The B.Sc. program in Mathematics uses a comprehensive exam as their "senior assessment". Within the exam, the discipline specific knowledge, skills, and competencies areas include the following…

Algebra and Trigonometry
Calculus
Probability and Statistics
Modern Algebra
Differential Equations
Linear Algebra

The ability to understand and apply principles in the aforementioned KSC areas are the Mathematics degree program student learning outcomes.