

Industrial Technology Management and Applied Engineering Student Learning Outcomes

Industrial Technology B.S.

The Student will gain...

1. a general overall understanding of American and international industry, research, design, production, management and servicing
2. a firm understanding of modern technological practices and procedures used by industry
3. a solid foundation of the various industrial areas that will prepare the student for a position in corporate America
4. a background in technical management and supervision
5. an appreciation of the American work ethic and for completing tasks with pride and on time
6. "hands on" experience, using the latest traditional and high technological instrumentation, equipment and simulation software