Pamela Lewis is a proud native of Turrell, Arkansas, known for her infectious energy and uplifting spirit. A dedicated educator, counselor, and minister, she has devoted her life to inspiring and empowering individuals from all walks of life.

Pamela earned a Bachelor of Science in Elementary Education from the University of Arkansas at Pine Bluff, followed by a Master of Education in Counseling from the University of Arkansas at Little Rock. She currently serves as a school counselor at Pinnacle View Middle School and holds the prestigious title of National Board-Certified Teacher in School Counseling.

Beyond education, Pamela's deep faith has guided her journey. She received Bible training from Harvest Bible Institute in Kansas City, MO, and was licensed and ordained through Aenon Bible College. She is widely recognized for her ability to minister with clarity, conviction, and a practical approach that resonates with diverse audiences. She firmly believes that the Word of God is both powerful and relevant, capable of transforming lives.

Since 2011, Pamela has been an active member of ACTS (Agape Community Temple of Servants) Ministries, where she has served in various capacities, including as a minister, altar worker, and Sunday School teacher.

She draws strength from Philippians 1:6—"Being confident of this very thing, that He which hath begun a good work in you will perform it until the day of Jesus Christ."—and finds inspiration in Marianne Williamson's words: "As we let our own light shine, we automatically give others permission to do the same."

Pamela's mission is to minister healing to the brokenhearted, serve the less fortunate, and uplift others through her preaching and motivational speaking. Her passion and charisma have made her a sought-after speaker, emcee, mentor and motivator who brings energy and encouragement to a variety of events. In her spare time, she enjoys reading, spending time with loved ones, and mentoring the next generation.
